- 8 oz fresh mozzarella
- 2 croissants or brioche buns
- 1 small jar of pesto

2.2 Instructions

1. Slice tomato and mozzarella, and cut croissants or buns.
2. Spread croissants or buns with pesto.
3. Layer tomato and mozzarella.
4. Fry sandwiches in butter until toasted.

3 Recipe Two

3.1 Ingredients

- 1 yellow onion
- 4 cloves of garlic
- 1 red pepper
- 1 14.5oz can crushed fire-roasted tomatoes
- 1/4 oz cilantro
- 4 eggs
- feta cheese
- pitas or naan

3.2 Instructions

1. Chop onion and red pepper. Mince garlic.
2. In a frying pan, heat one tablespoon of oil over medium heat and cook onions for about five minutes.
3. Add crushed tomatoes and cook until boiling. Reduce heat and simmer another 5-10 minutes, until the sauce is thickened.
4. Using the back of a spoon, make four indentations in the sauce. Crack an egg in each indentation. Cook seven minutes longer until eggs are just set.
5. Remove from heat, and sprinkle feta and cilantro.
6. Serve in a bowl with toasted pitas or naan.

4 Recipe Three

4.1 Ingredients

- 1 pound pasta (e.g., farfalle or rigatoni)
- 1.5 pounds of stew beef
- 2 bottles of red wine
- 1 vidalia onion
- 1-2 celery sticks
- 1-2 carrots
- 4 garlic cloves
- 4 oz diced pancetta
- 1/2 teaspoon ground cinnamon
- 1/4 teaspoon ground clove (or 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg)
- 1 square dark chocolate
- 1/2 teaspoon dried sage (or 2-3 fresh sage leaves chopped)
- 1 teaspoon dried rosemary (or one fresh rosemary sprig)
- Parmesan cheese to top

4.2 Instructions

1. The night before, place stew beef in a bowl with pepper and enough red wine to cover. Marinate in the refrigerator overnight.
2. Dice onion, carrot, and celery. Mince garlic, and sage and rosemary if using fresh. Finely shave dark chocolate with a knife.
3. Add pancetta to a stock pan with olive oil. Cook for 2-3 minutes.
4. Add onion, carrot, celery and garlic to stock pan and cook until vegetables are cooked.
5. Drain beef marinade.
6. Add beef, sage, rosemary, chocolate, cinnamon, and clove to the sauce pan. Stir.
7. Cover with red wine, add a pinch of salt and pepper, and simmer for about two hours.
8. When ready, boil pasta according to package instructions. Save a cup of pasta water.
9. Add pasta to stock pan with sauce and stir. If needed, add pasta water to loosen the sauce.
10. Serve with grated Parmesan.
